

JOSHUA HUFFMAN

Deaf Pastor - Deaf Ministry
at Edenwest Baptist Church
Pell City, Alabama

Pastor Joshua Huffman is the Deaf Pastor at Eden Westside Baptist Church in Pell City, Alabama, and serves as a Deaf Ministry Strategist with the Alabama State Board of Missions. He serves with Deaf Millennial Project and as Spiritual Coordinator for Deafquake Camp, focusing on discipleship and leadership development among Deaf youth and young adults. With a background in Deaf church planting, Joshua is passionate about equipping the Deaf community to center their lives on Christ and grow in authentic, biblical discipleship.

Joshua serves with the Deaf Millennial Project, focusing on discipleship and equipping the next generation of Deaf believers to live faithfully and lead boldly. He also serves as the Spiritual Coordinator for Deafquake Camp, providing spiritual leadership, discipleship structure, and biblical teaching to Deaf youth and young adults.

With a background in Deaf church planting through Gospel Community Church Owensboro in Owensboro, Kentucky, Joshua has a deep passion for developing sustainable, Gospel-centered Deaf ministries and raising up leaders within the Deaf community.

His calling is rooted in advocating for and equipping Deaf individuals, both believers and unbelievers, to place Jesus Christ at the center of their lives, homes, and churches. Through preaching, teaching, and leadership development, he works to cultivate authentic discipleship that reflects the model of Christ.

Joshua serves alongside various organizations, camps, and retreats, investing in his generation and those coming after him by pointing them to Christ and training them to walk in truth. His mission is to disciple others as Jesus did and to see all things done for the glory of God.
